cargo-partner to Build iLogistics Center in Ljubljana

cargo-partner will begin the construction of a modern iLogistics Center near Ljubljana Airport within the year. The newly built site will increase cargo-partner's present storage space by six times, resulting in over 20,000 pallet slots on more than 25,000 m<sup>2</sup>.

International transport and info-logistics provider cargo-partner will begin the construction of a new logistics center in Ljubljana, Slovenia within the year 2018. This project applies as a part of the company's strategic investments into strengthening its worldwide warehousing capacities. The new iLogistics Center will contain over 20,000 pallet slots on more than 25,000 m<sup>2</sup> of storage space and will also include a 6,000 m<sup>2</sup> small parts and single pick area, 5,000 m<sup>2</sup> of cross dock and block storage space and 4,000 m<sup>2</sup> of office space.

Located directly next to Ljubljana Airport, approximately 20 minutes from the city center, it will offer a direct connection to the motorway (A2). With 44 truck docks, the facility is well equipped for daily pick-up and distribution from and to the surrounding area.

cargo-partner's Managing Director in Slovenia, Viktor Kastelic, states: "Our new iLogistics Center reflects the growing demand and our commitment to the Slovenian market. We are also happy to expand our team from 100 to 130 employees and we look forward to welcoming fresh talent, knowledge and skills at our modern and attractive new office."

Other recent logistics investments by cargo-partner include the timber-based iLogistics Center at the company's headquarters in Fischamend, Austria, with a total area of over 12,200 m<sup>2</sup>, as well as the iLogistics Center in Sofia, Bulgaria, with 16,500 m<sup>2</sup> of storage space, both of which took up operations in spring 2018.
