

Privacy Notice for online applications at cargo-partner

At cargo-partner, we are dedicated to maintaining an inclusive, respectful workplace. We do not tolerate discrimination based on race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, or any other protected characteristic. We ensure that all candidates are given equal opportunities during the recruitment process. By accepting our privacy policy, candidates acknowledge our commitment to these principles and agree to participate in a fair, transparent hiring process cargo-partner Holdings GmbH is a company that manages human resources for all cargo-partner group of companies and organizations and provides a centralized platform for online applications for all countries where cargo-partner is present. cargo-partner GmbH is thus responsible for this platform.

Name and contact details of the “data controller”

The company responsible as “data controller” for processing the application data for the application process is cargo-partner Holdings GmbH (P.O. Box 1, Airportstrasse 9, 2401 Fischamend, Austria). This applies to all group companies of the cargo-partner group.

This privacy policy refers to personal data collected by cargo-partner during the recruitment process.

For us, cargo-partner, the security and confidentiality of your personal data is very important. As such, we will take all necessary measures to ensure the security and confidentiality of the processed personal data, in order to process the personal data according to the applicable legal provisions and exclusively for the purposes specified below.

Personal data we process

For submitting your application, cargo-partner has implemented the application tool of Lever Inc, referred to above as the “data processor“ which gives you the opportunity online to submit your application electronically for a position in cargo-partner or one of the group companies of cargo-partner * via this platform on the website: <https://jobs.lever.co/cargo-partner>

In order to implement the recruitment process, including in order to conclude the relevant contract, if you are selected, we will collect from you the following personal data:

- Identification data: full name, date of birth, gender, domicile/residence, citizenship, home address;
- Contact data: telephone address and e-mail address;
- Data regarding education and obtained qualifications;
- Data regarding the previous professional experience;
- Language skills
- Data resulted from the selection process data provided by the Thomas test and the Personnel Questionnaire, including your handwriting or signature, which may be analyzed;
- Additional data voluntarily provided by you in the CV or during the interview in order to conclude the individual employment contract (e.g. photography, hobbies, data on holding a driver’s license, residence permit, residence registration certificate, marital status, etc.).

Also, in case of scheduling an interview at the headquarters of cargo-partner Holdings GmbH or at any other locations in the cargo-partner company's group, in the areas under surveillance by CCTV systems we collect video images of you.

How we collect your personal data

We collect the personal data you voluntarily provide to us during the recruitment process. It is communicated by you, directly, via the platform on the website <https://jobs.lever.co/cargo-partner>. We can collect your personal data offline through the Human resources department, by written correspondence or e-mail (jobs@cargo-partner.com), verbally or by telephone. All the contact information you can find it at: <https://cargo-partner.com/contact/>.

Sometimes, we may collect personal data that concern you also by specialized recruitment websites or other specialized agencies, if you have applied to a position and posted on such a website or published in another manner by such an agency or you have published your CV on such a website.

Also, video images are automatically collected by CCTV system and stored in accordance with the specific national law in each country.

Your personal data is necessary for us in order to implement the recruitment process, and you cannot participate in this process without providing this data.

Data collected from LinkedIn & Xing

If you have a professional profile on LinkedIn or Xing, the input screen gives you the option to transmit data required for the application from your professional profile to cargo-partner. This means that manual collection of master data via the input screen will only be partially necessary. Your applicant profile will be created on transmission of master data from LinkedIn and/or Xing.

As well as the master data, additional data such as; current employer, current position, may be transferred from your profile at LinkedIn or Xing. Such data is generally not required to create a profile in our data processor, yet still may be transmitted based on your profile settings. The providers of LinkedIn and Xing are the data controllers in these cases, not cargo-partner. For this reason, please check your professional profile settings prior to submission to determine which personal data is affected. You have the possibility to adjust, rectify and delete your data at any time using the consent links and applicant profiles.

The legal basis for the transmission of your master data and additional data from LinkedIn or Xing is provided by Art. 6 § 1 a) GDPR, Consent given to the providers.

Please refer to the Privacy policies of LinkedIn & Xing respectively below:

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/legal/privacy-policy>

Xing: <https://privacy.xing.com/en/privacy-policy>

Processing purposes and legal grounds

The personal data that concerns you is processed exclusively for the purposes specified in this Privacy Policy and only based on processing legal grounds, specified by the applicable legal provisions regarding the protection of personal data:

- (i) Your personal data shall be processed in order to execute the recruitment process, in order to make endeavors, upon your request, before and in view of concluding the individual employment contract or another agreement with similar effects, in order to meet the legal conditions for occupying the position for which you apply (including references from your previous employers and creating your psychological profile using the data provided by you in the Thomas Test, in the Personnel Questionnaire and your handwriting).

Legal ground for this processing is art. 6 par. 1 let. b) of EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)- performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract.

- (ii) Your data may be used in order to verify the compliance with the legal obligations regarding the hiring process in specific country where the position is opened.

Legal grounds for this processing is art. 6 par. 1 let. c) of EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)- compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject.

- (iii) Your data may be used in order to defend the company against any complaints filed by candidates.

Legal grounds for this processing is art. 6 par. 1 let. f) of EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)- legitimate interest pursued by the controller – fight against discrimination claims of the applicants (dependent on the statute of limitation determined in the respective national laws, e.g. Austria- 6 months, Slovakia- 3 years, Romania- 1 year etc.).

- (iv) The video images collected by the CCTV system is used for protection against criminality.

Legal grounds for this processing is art. 6 par. 1 let. f) of EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)- legitimate interest pursued by the controller- protection against criminality.

- (v) Your personal data may be processed in a candidate pool for future recruitment in which you may be interested, only if you provide an express consent for this purpose.

Legal grounds for this processing is art. 6 par. 1 let. a) of Regulation 679/2016- given consent to the processing.

- (vi) Data is processed for reporting or statistical purposes. This processing is done anonymously, therefore no identification or conclusion about the individual personal data are possible.

Legal grounds for this processing is art. 6 par. 1 let. f) of EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)- legitimate interest pursued by the controller- commercial interest.

You are entitled to know the purpose for which we process your personal data. We will inform you before processing your data for any other purpose.

Moreover, we shall adequately protect your interests, rights and liberties. Personal data is stored in a secured location, and is protected in transit. The data that is no longer for achieving the purpose is anonymized.

Storage duration

Your personal data will be stored during the entire duration in which the recruitment process is implemented, and for another 2 years if you have provided your consent for its storage in the candidate pool.

Your data is stored for a period determined by specific national law in order to defend the company against any complaints filed by candidates (fight against discrimination claims. e.g. Austria- 6 months, Romania- 1 year etc.).

The video images of you will be stored for a period determined by specific national law or regulation, and shall be automatically deleted after the expiry of this period.

If the storage of personal data is necessary in virtue of express national legal provisions, we may continue to store your personal data, in the period provided by those national legal provisions.

Recipients of the personal data

Your data may be sent to the management of the company, to the providers of support services, the companies that are members of the Cargo Partner group, and to the state authorities, where applicable. We would like to mention that cargo-partner has concluded with these service providers contracts that comprise mandatory clauses on ensuring the security, integrity and confidentiality of your personal data.

You shall be notified regarding any future disclosure of your personal data to any new addressee (a private natural person or legal entity, a public authority or any other body), unless such a transfer or disclosure is expressly provided by the European Union law or national law.
